Don't believe it is possible to provide truly healthy meals at school for the same price can feed children at home. 4) Not enough

"It is cool to have school meals"

						factor is missing. 3) Occasionally the choice my child would like has ran out and not available. 4) Price is very reasonable. I like the fact that there is a choice so there are able to choose what they like.

Child enjoys special lunches. 2) Feel there should not be any nut products on the menu. 3) Other son gets a much bigger meal for £2.20 at his school. Quantity is sometimes not sufficient and son is sometimes hungry. Choice, quality and quantity seems to be very dependent on which sitting children are on. 4) Meal requested is not always available, and does not always fill

Little option for wheat/gluten allergy, therefore no option but to have packed lunch. 3) Choose not have school meals as I can feed my children a better balance, higher quality lunch in their lunch boxes more cheaply.
6 (5)	Once a week 2/3 times a week Everyday 2 Never Special Events 3	Very satisfied Satisfied 3 Neither Unsatisfied 1 Very unsatisfied 1	Very satisfied 3 Satisfied 3 Neither Unsatisfied 2 Very unsatisfied	£1.50 1 £1.50-£1.75 1		1) Has hot dinners depending on what mum is doing – if busy easier just to pay for a lunch. 2) When special event meals are ordered there is never anything left of what is ordered – so if you don't get what you ordered, you go without. 3) Think the cost of the meals is fine however it cannot compete with a packed lunch that can be a fraction of the cost and still be healthy. In addition my children have food allergies which are not catered for. 4) £2 is a lot to pay when your

					child is 3rd or 4th in turn for lunch. Very often choice is greatly reduced with smaller portions – they come home hungry. 5) They are not happy with small amounts, sometimes even running out, also the way the food is presented on the plate. Also to have more choice of different dishes daily, not all children like the same thing.
